Filmed between 1962-1966, starring Yaphet Kotto (Alien, Blue Collar), this film was given its limited release in 1980. An all-black production, cast and crew included, it was the first filmed version of Othello not to feature a white actor in blackface. Unavailable on DVD or blu-ray, the screening will be a borrowed 16mm archival print thanks to the New York Public Library and the Carnegie Corporation.
